

CINEMA, ART AND BISTRONOMIE PROJECT COORDINATOR

6 month Paid Internship
According to availability
Berlin

Coproduction Office is an international label that produces and sells bold and award-winning films. Its sister company Briefmarken Weine is one of Berlin's best wine bars, focusing on artisanal and natural wines paired with authentic Italian bistro cuisine, also importing Italian "vin d'auteur" to Germany. Film producer Philippe Bober is the founder of the companies and has produced forty films to date with twelve of these having been selected to screen in Competition in Cannes, winning two Golden Palms: TRIANGLE OF SADNESS (2022) and THE SQUARE (2017) both by Ruben Östlund. Philippe also produces video installations (WOMEN WITHOUT MEN by Shirin Neshat, ALBERI by Michelangelo Frammartino) and works with visual artists Zapruder and Michelangelo Frammartino. Coproduction Office is now connecting its know-how in these fields in a unique project: a premium cultural space combining a three-screen arthouse cinema, an art gallery and multifunctional exhibition venue, ambitious restaurants and a wine bar. Located in Berlin's city center in an iconic listed building, it is to open its doors to the public in 2025.

We are looking for a future colleague starting as an intern, with the potential of a full-time position as a proactive coordinator for this pioneering interdisciplinary project. The working languages are German and English, in which full working proficiency is required, further languages are beneficial, in particular French and Italian.

You Are:

Cosmopolitan, pro-active, problem-solving, lateral thinking, culture, film- and/or wine-loving, and have a positive working attitude and an eye for details. Organisational and analytical skills are appreciated, as well as precision regarding timelines, grammar, numbers and spreadsheets. Your background can be either in wine, food, cinema, the film industry, art, real estate development, business administration, computer sciences or marketing.

You may undertake and be responsible for one or several of the following duties:

- Coordinating financing applications, following-up with funds, financiers, projects and clients.
- Analyzing processes and making suggestions on how to optimise them
- Preparing a marketing plan and materials.
- Contributing to building up Briefmarken Weine's brand, team and management
- Assisting with wine import and attendance of wine fairs
- Assisting with the preparation of art fairs
- Liaising with artists regarding physical production, printing, openings
- Assisting with the organization of events and pop exhibitions
- Contributing to developing the art space
- Researching new suppliers and communicating with existing ones.
- Compiling documents, in particular spreadsheets and presentations.
- Coordinating tasks and deadlines, meetings with consultants and stakeholders
- Communicating directly with external project coordinators, architects, construction managers, specialist planners and other people involved in the project
- Organizing media relations

The internship is full time, remunerated with 1000 - 1200€ brutto / month (est. netto 950 € / month) and can lead to further employment.

Please send your application (including CV and cover letter) to: staffspl@coproductionoffice.eu.
Please also indicate where you saw this post. If shortlisted, interviews will take place either in Berlin, Paris or on Skype. The position is based in Berlin (Mitte / Friedrichshain) and with a start date according to availability.